Ambitious, poignant, and often riotously funny, Terrence McNally's "Lips Together, Teeth Apart" is an indictment of ignorance and stagnancy in the fight against AIDS, as well as a powerful look inside dissolving marriages, lost hopes and dreams, and the looming, capricious nature of death. LIPS TOGETHER AND TEETH APART One of the most important steps in breaking the habit of clenching and grinding your teeth is to become conscious of when it occurs and, of course, to stop doing it. An excellent way to avoid clenching is to learn to keep your lips together and your teeth apart. Oct 30, Set a year earlier in the Fire Island Pines, Lips Together tackles mortality and marital discomfort through the eyes of two (straight) couples.
